

Key Character/ Relationship Test

Quick Test

For Peer or Self-Assessment

Write a quick response to each of the following questions which are based on a key character and relationship in your chosen text. Then, using some of your responses, write a character study on the following pages in approximately 200 words (three or four paragraphs).

Name of text: _____

Author: _____

Name of character: _____

Student's name: _____

Date: _____

In 20 words or less, write a description of your chosen character.

1. Briefly, explain what role this character has in the text.

2. If the character faces obstacles in the text, identify one key obstacle and explain how the character deals with and overcomes that obstacle.

3. Describe one positive and/or negative relationship your character has in the text.

4. At some point in the text, does the character feel trapped?

5. Write out one thing about this character that surprised you.

6. Does this character change over time? When and how did he/she change?

7. Write out three important quotations that tell you something about the character.

8. Write one thing that still puzzles you about this character.

9. Overall, how do you feel when you think about this character?

First Draft

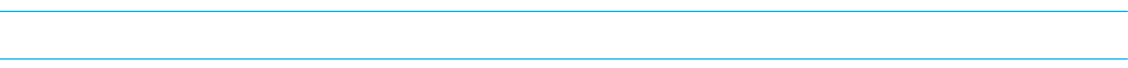

Now, having gathered your thoughts, feelings and opinions, write a detailed study of this character below. Aim to write approximately 150–200 words and use three or more paragraphs.

This image shows a full page of blank handwriting practice paper. It features approximately 28 horizontal blue lines spaced evenly across the page. The lines are thin and light blue, set against a plain white background. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

Think-Pair-Share

[illegible]

Feedback from TPS:

[illegible]